A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 448, 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.419 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, on 08.05.2022, the petitioner along with other accused came to the defacto complainant's house and attacked him with wooden log and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and a false case has been foisted against him on account of previous enmity. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (criminal side) for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity, on 08.05.2022, the petitioner along with other accused came to the defacto complainant's house and attacked him with wooden log and also threatened him with dire consequences. He would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner/accused.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Metropolitan Magistrate-X, Egmore, Chennai on condition that the
