The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 342, 324, 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.259 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Manikandan is that on 02.04.2023 at about 7.15 p.m., on the street near the house of one Madhan, the petitioner in an inebriated condition, was using ugly and unparliamentary words loudly and hence, the defacto complainant intervened and asked him not to use abusive words loudly when children were there. Hence, the petitioner along with other accused attacked the defacto complainant by using Sickle. Further, they threatened him with Sickle and wooden log with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against the petitioner and his brother-in-law and based on the complaint, his brother-in-law/A2 has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
