Crime No.118 of 2023, pending investigation on the file of the respondent
Police.

Crl.O.P.No.8744 of 2023

For Petitioners : Mr.D.Mariojohnson
For Respondent : Mr.C.E.Pratap
Government Advocate (crl.side)

ORDER

(This case has been heard through Video Conferencing)

The petitioners, who were arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 09.03.2023, for the offences punishable under Sections 417, 420, 120(B), 370 of IPC, in Crime No.118 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that both the de-facto complainant and the accused are Srilankan refugees. The accused, on the false promise of making illegal arrangements for the de-facto complainant to migrate from Velankanni to New Zealand through fishing boat, have obtained a sum of Rs.2 lakhs from him, for the cost of illegal transport and cheated them. Further during investigation it came to light that the accused have also cheated several other victims to the tune of Rs.17,00,000/-. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners and the de-facto complainant both are the Srilankan refugees and there was a financial dispute between them, due to which, the de-facto complainant has lodged a false complaint as against the petitioners and the petitioners themselves are victims. He also submitted that the petitioners are in judicial custody from 09.03.2023 and they ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the de-facto complainant and the accused are Srilankan refugees staying at Srilankan Refugee Camps located at different locations. He further submitted that the petitioners along with other accused have induced the de-facto complainant and others, who are the Srilankan refugees, that they would be able to arrange for an illegal immigration to New Zealand through fishing boats and had obtained several lakhs and cheated them. He further submitted that as far as this case is concerned, the accused have received amounts to the tune of Rs.17,00,000/- from the defacto complainant to the victim and cheated them. Hence, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioners.
