2. The nature of relief sought for in the present writ petition is presumptive and therefore, the petitioner cannot be construed as an aggrieved person. Further, there is no cause aroused for the purpose of initiation of writ proceedings, since no reclassification has been done by the respondents.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner states that civil litigations are pending, while so, no writ needs to be entertained in respect of grounds raised in the present writ petition. Since the petitioner has not established any cause for the purpose of entertaining the writ petition, the petitioner is at liberty to adjudicate the civil proceedings, which is already instituted.

4. It is brought to the notice of this Court that the petitioner has earlier filed a writ petition in W.P.No.8936 of 2023, seeking the same relief and the said writ petition was disposed of by granting liberty to the writ petitioner to redress his grievances in the manner known to law. Despite the fact that the petitioner had already filed a writ petition, again he has filed the present writ petition such a conduct of the petitioner is deprecated.

W.P.No.15367 of

5. With these clarifications, this Writ Petition stands dismissed. No costs.
