Crl.O.P.No.8593 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.64 of 2021 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a quarrel between the petitioner and his friends quarrelled with the defacto complainant's son and his friends and that the petitioner had abused them with filthy language and assaulted them with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that there was a quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant's son, due to which, the petitioner had abused him with filthy language and assaulted him with dire consequences. Hence, he opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Walaja, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond
