Crl.O.P.No.8595 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b) and 307 of IPC, in Crime No.92 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner waylaid the defacto complainant, abused him with filthy language and attacked him with knife and beer bottle. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, he has been falsely implicated in this case and that he is no way connected with the alleged offence. He would further submit that the co-accused had already been granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Crl.O.P.No.6511 of 2023 dated 31.03.2023 and that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused have abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him with knife and beer bottle and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and also of the fact that the co-accused in this case had already been granted anticipatory bail by this Court, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
