Crl.O.P.No.8597 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(1) of IPC, in Crime No.128 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 23.03.2023 at about 10.00 p.m., the petitioner along with other accused had abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him with dire consequences, due to which, the defacto complainant had sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and a false complaint has been registered against him. He would also submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient solvent sureties and to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed on him. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with other accused had abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him with dire consequences and thereby, caused severe injuries on him. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
