Crl.O.P.No.8916 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 234, 506(ii) of IPC and read with Section 4 of TNPWH Act in Crime No.119 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that the daughter of the first accused and one Thilagaraj had love affair, due to which the petitioners went to the defacto complainant's house and abused him with filthy language and also assaulted him due to which he sustained injuries. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the the daughter of the first accused and one Thilagaraj had love affair, due to which the petitioners went to the defacto complainant's house and abused the him with filthy language.He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsels. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the injured has been discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court-II, Tindivanam, on condition that each
