.. Defendants

This case came up for settlement before the National Lok Adalat. The parties are present. The learned counsel for the plaintiff Mr.M.Murali and the learned counsel for the defendants Mr.V.Meenakshi Sundaram are present. After mutual discussion, negotiation, mediation and conciliation between both parties, they arrived at a compromise to settle the matter as follows:

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

Both the parties and their respective counsel are present.

2.The suit has been filed for declaration that a sum of Rs.50,00,000/-

(Rupees Fifty Lakhs only) together with interest is liable to be adjusted against the loan of Rs.50,00,000/- (Rupees Fifty Lakhs only) advanced by the plaintiff and for a direction to the defendants to pay Rs.1,00,00,000/- (Rupees One Crore only) to the plaintiff along with interest at 24% p.a. and sought for consequential permanent injunction to restrain the defendants from making any claim over and above Rs.50,00,000/- (Rupees Fifty Lakhs only).

3.Today, the parties have presented a signed memorandum of compromise. It is also counter signed by the respective counsel. It is seen that the parties have amicably resolved the dispute. A sum of Rs.25,00,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five lakhs only) to each of the defendants has been paid through RTGS and the same has been duly received, acknowledged and confirmed by the defendants. It is also recorded in the memorandum of compromise that the connected suit in O.S.No.4761 of 2019, which is pending on the file of the VII-Additional City Civil Court, Chennai shall also be withdrawn, in view of this settlement. The said memorandum of compromise is taken on file and the same is recorded. There shall be no further mutual claim between the parties.

4.The Civil Suit is decreed in terms of compromise. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petition, if any, is closed.
