Crl.O.P.No.9473 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.86 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant belong to same village and they are relatives. On the date of occurrence, due to previous enmity with regard to sharing of property, there arose quarrel between the parties, in which the petitioner abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and also assaulted him due to which he sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. The learned counsel further submitted that it is a case and case in counter in Crime No.87 of 2023. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that on the date of occurrence, due to previous enmity with regard to sharing of property, there arose quarrel between the parties, in which the petitioner abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and also assaulted him, due to which he sustained injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the injured has been discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
