The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No. 137 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that, due to family dispute, the petitioner sexually abused the defacto complainant and also assaulted her and intimidated her. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, a false complaint has been given against the petitioner. He further submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner .

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that due to family dispute, the petitioner had sexually abused the defacto complainant and assaulted her using bricks and also intimidated her. He further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made on both sides and also taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Gudiyatham, Vellore District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to
