The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 20(b)(ii)(A) of NDPS Act 1985, in Crime No.90 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 23.02.2023 at about 5.00 hrs., based on a secret information, the respondent police conducted search in the house of the petitioner and seized 10 grams of Ganja from his house of the petitioner. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending as against the petitioner and that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient solvent sureties and to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that based on a secret information, a search was conducted in the petitioner's house during which, the respondent police seized 10 grams of Ganja in the house of the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his defense and contention, is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- to any welfare scheme run by the Government and would seek for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on records.

7. Taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) to the credit of the "The Dean/Medical Officer, Government Villupuram Medical College and Hospital, Mundiampakkam, Villupuram District", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. Merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

9. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the counsel on either sides and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- to "The Dean/Medical Officer, Government Villupuram Medical College and Hospital, Mundiampakkam, Villupuram District", this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
