A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA,J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.53 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 27.02.2023 at about 10 A.M., the petitioners along with other accused have abducted the defacto complainant in their car and taken him to Andhra Pradesh in their car and kept him in their custody for two days and they have abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and attacked and caused grievous injury to the defacto complainant. After two days, they have released the defacto complainant from their custody and thereby the victim was admitted in the hospital. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he is a driver and he has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would also submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He further submit that he is ready to abide any condition that may be imposed by this Court. He further submit that the co-accused have been granted anticipatory bail in Crl.MP.No.1129 of 2023 dated 29.03.2023 before the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Krishnagiri, and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioners along with other accused have abducted the defacto complainant in their car and taken him to Andhra Pradesh in their car and kept him in their custody for two days and they have abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and attacked and caused grievous injury to the defacto complainant. He further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) and perused the materials available on record.
