4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner/husband abused the defacto complainant and her daughter/wife with filthy language and also threatened them with dire consequences. He would also submit that the injury sustained is simple in nature. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-1, Tiruvannamalai, Tiruvannamalai District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-
