The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 294(b), 323, 324, 379 and 506(ii) of I.P.C and Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Women Harassment Act, 2002, in Crime No.327 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, intimidated her and also tried to attack her. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that due to family dispute, a false complaint has been foisted against them. He would further submit that they have nothing to do with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners are relatives of the defacto complainant. Due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, intimidated her and also tried to attack her. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against them. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances and the submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Thiruppur on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees twenty five thousand only) with two sureties each for a like
