The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of I.P.C, in Crime No.71 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioners have abused the de-facto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him with wooden logs, due to which he sustained simple injury. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that it is a case and case in counter. He would submit that on the complaint given by the petitioners, the counter case in Crime No.70 of 2023 has been registered by the respondent police. Hence, he seeks to grant anticipatory bail in respect of the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that it is a case and a case in counter. He would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration of the facts and submissions made by the learned Counsel on either sides and also taking note that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Kumarapalayam, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/-
