Crl.O.P.No.8906 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324 and 506(2) and 307 of I.P.C in Crime No.150 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are residing in the same village, while so, when the defacto complainant participated in the temple festival, there was a wordy quarrel between them and the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence he seeks for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant in a public place and caused injuries to him. He further submitted that the injured discharged from the hospital. Hence he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions of the learned Counsel for the parties and the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on them appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sendamangalam on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer, who intends to
