4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours and there was some land dispute between them, due to which the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him. He further submitted that the injured discharged from the hospital. Hence he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions of the learned Counsel for the parties and the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on them appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Vellore on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
