The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.65 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Sureshkumar is that, on 09.04.2023, at about 1.30 p.m, when the petitioner was at the function of the defacto complainant, at that time, the petitioner enquired about the insurance of his vehicle, for which, the defacto complainant refused to give proper reply, due to which, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and left the place. It is further alleged that on the same day at about 9.00 p.m, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant with stone and abused him in filthy language and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and with an intention to harass the petitioner, the defacto complainant gave a false complaint against him.

He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with other accused have attacked the defacto complainant with stones, with regard to the payment of the insurance of the petitioner's vehicle. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also
