Crl.O.P.No.9237 of 2023

WEB COUNCIL S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 448 & 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.225 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that he is an Advocate, while he was dealing with the case of the client, at that time, the petitioner/accused had trespassed into the office of the defacto complainant, abused him in filthy language and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language.

He would further submit that no one injured in this case. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel on either sides and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that no one sustained any injury, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Chengam, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a
