Crl.O.P.No.9234 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections, 294(b), 323, 506(i) and 379 of IPC and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.110 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners are running a flower shop. On 07.04.2023, at about 9.30 p.m, the de facto complainant along with his friend, namely, Lakshmi with an intention to buy fruits, at that time, the petitioners picked up wordy quarrel with the defacto complainant and also abused them in filthy language. They attacked them and caused injury. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that this is a case in counter and that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against them. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that this is a case in counter and that the petitioners attacked the de facto complainant and abused her with filthy language and sustained injuries. He further submitted that the injured
