CrI.O.P.No.9688 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(ii) of I.P.C of I.P.C in Crime No.303 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the brother of the defacto complainant and the petitioner are friends and there was some dispute between them, due to which the petitioner along with other accused attacked the brother of the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would submit that the brother of the defacto complainant only attacked him. Hence he seeks for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (CrI. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner petitioner along with other accused attacked the brother of the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him. He further submitted that the injured discharged from the hospital. Hence he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions of the learned Counsel for the parties and the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days
