Crl.O.P.No.9332 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 3(2)(a), 4(1), 5(1)(a) of Immoral Traffic Prevention Act, 1956, in Crime No.62 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the other accused has indulged in immoral trafficking by engaging the victims. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and a false complaint has been registered against him. The petitioner is no way connected in this case as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that this Court had already granted anticipatory bail to the petitioner and due to some difficulty in executing the surety within the stipulated time as ordered therein, the said anticipatory bail application was dismissed and hence, this is the second anticipatory bail application. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that no previous is pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and submissions made on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail
