Crl.O.P.No.9230 of 2023

WEB COUNCIL S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 294(b), 323, & 506(i) of IPC, in Crime No.23 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that, due to previous enmity, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant, her husband and her husband's friend in filthy language, attacked them and threatened them with dire consequence. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to previous enmity, they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the injury sustained by the defacto complainant is simple in nature. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that due to previous enmity, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant and her husband's friend in filthy language and also attacked them and threatened them with dire consequence. He would submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel on either sides and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days
