The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 5 and 7(3) of Lotteries Regulation Act, 1998 and Section 353 of IPC in Crime No.384 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is the petitioner along with other accused illegally sold the banned Lottery tickets. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against him for statistical purpose. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner along with other accused illegally sold the banned Lottery tickets to the public. He would further submit that there is no previous case as against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
