Crl.O.P.No.9757 of 2023

K.KUMARESH BABU, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b) , 323 and 506(i) IPC, in Crime No.30 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a matrimonial dispute between the first petitioner's daughter one Deepika/wife and the defacto complainant/husband, due to which, there was wordy quarrel between them. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against them for statistical purpose. He further submitted that due to matrimonial dispute, the 1st petitioner's daughter one Deepika had filed a divorce petition in H.M.O.P.No.174 of 2022, for which, the defacto complainant had threatened the petitioners to withdraw the divorce case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to matrimonial dispute between the defacto complainant and his wife, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant. He further submitted that it is a case and a case in counter. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration, the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the
