Crl.O.P.No.10012 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 506(ii) of IPC @ Section 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) of IPC and Section 4 of TNPHW Act r/w.387 of IP, in Crime No.411 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there is a civil dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant. In the melee, petitioners attacked the defacto complainant's sister and abused in filthy language and given life threaten to the defacto complainant. They attacked them and caused injury. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that this is a case in counter and that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against them. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that this is a case in counter and that the petitioners attacked the de facto complainant and abused her with filthy language and sustained injuries. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration, the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Palladam, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- each (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.
