Crl.O.P.No.9564 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324 & 506 (ii) of IPC in Crime No.151 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 04.04.2023 during panguni utthiram, the first accused viz., Ajay hit the defacto complainant with his bike. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant's son, the petitioners attacked him with wooden log and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have nothing to do with the said allegation and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Having regard to the facts of the case and the nature of the allegation made against the petitioners and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
