At the instance of the learned counsel for the appellant, these matters are listed today under the caption “for being mentioned”.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the appellant submitted that while disposing of these writ appeal on 28.04.2023, this Court has granted eight weeks time for complying with the direction issued therein. However, the appellant was unable to comply with the same, within the time granted by this Court. Therefore, the learned counsel prayed for extension of time.

3. This court is of the view that unless a petition seeking extension of time is filed by the appellant, time cannot be extended.

4. In such view of the matter, no further order needs to be passed herein. The order dated 28.04.2023 passed in these writ appeals remain unaltered.
