The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent/ Police for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 465, 468 and 471 of IPC in Crime No.11 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution that the petitioner has furnished a fabricated “work completion certificate” to obtain contract from the Corporation of Salem. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He approached one agent to get contract and the agent has produced the fake certificate and the petitioner is not aware of the same. Thereby, he seeks grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner has produced fake work completion certificate in order to obtain contract from the Corporation of Salem. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.2, Salem on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent/Police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the
