The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 and 430 of I.P.C, in Crime No.118 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during their routine check up, the petitioners were found in illegal transportation of one unit of river sand in a tipper lorry without any valid permit or license from the Government. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are an innocent person and a false case has been foisted against them. However, without prejudice to their rights and contentions, the petitioners are prepared to deposit a substantial amount towards any Welfare Scheme run by the Government as may be directed by this Court. Therefore, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners had illegally transported one unit of river sand without any valid permit from the Government by using a tipper lorry . He further submitted that one previous case is pending against the petitioners. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. In order to curb the illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioners offering to deposit a considerable amount to any Welfare Scheme run by the Government, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioners may be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to his rights and the contentions before the trial Court.

6. Having regard to the nature of allegations made against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
