This case came up for settlement before the National Lok Adalat. The learned counsel for the appellant Ms.L.Meena for Mr.C.Vidhusan and the learned counsel for the second respondent, Ms.N.B.Sureka are present. No appearance for the respondents 1, 3 and 4. After mutual discussion, negotiation, mediation and conciliation between both parties, they arrived at a compromise to settle the matter as follows:

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

Both the parties and their respective counsel are present.

2. The Tribunal has awarded a sum of Rs.15,62,584/-(Rupees Fifteen Lakhs Sixty Two Thousand Five Hundred and Eighty Four only) with interest at 7.5% p.a. from the date of petition till the date of deposit as compensation.

3. Aggrieved by the award, the appellants/claimants have preferred the present appeal, for enhancement. Now the Appellants/claimants have agreed to receive a sum of Rs.18,50,000/- (Rupees Eighteen Lakhs Fifty Thousand only) in full quit, which is also acceptable to the 2nd respondent Insurance Company.

4. The 2nd respondent Insurance Company is directed to deposit the award amount now ordered after deducting any amount already deposited, within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. On such deposit, the claimants are permitted to withdraw the Award amount as per the apportionment given by the Tribunal, after deducting the amount already withdrawn by the claimants, if any. Award is passed accordingly.

5. The Tribunal is directed to issue the award amount through NEFT/RTGS to the party concerned on proper identification in accordance with the terms of the award, without insisting on any formal permission petition. The Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is disposed of accordingly.
