Crl.O.P.No.9713 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA,J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 8(c), 20(b)(ii)(A), 25 of NDPS Act, in Crime No. 6 of 2020, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with two other accused persons were found selling 400 grams of ganja and two other accused persons were arrested on the spot and the petitioner had absconded from the scene of occurrence. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case based on the confession recorded from the arrested accused. He would further submit that the petitioner is a coolie and he has no previous case is pending against him and the arrested accused has been enlarged on bail. He would also submit that without prejudice, the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to any Welfare Scheme of the Government and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioner along with two other accused persons were found selling 400 grams of ganja and on seeing the police, the petitioner flew away from the scene of occurrence and as far as the other two accused persons are concerned they have been arrested and enlarged on bail. He further submit that the petitioner has no previous cases pending as against him. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made on both sides and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.10,000/- to any welfare scheme of the Government, this Court is
