Crl.O.P.No.9865 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 6(4) of Tamil Nadu Scheduled Commodities [RDCS] Order, 1982 r/w 7(1)(a)(ii) of Essential Commodities Act, 1955, in Crime No.13 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during their routine check up, they found that the petitioner was in possession of 300 kgs. of PDS rice in 6 bags. Hence, a case has been registered against the petitioner.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would also submit that the petitioner is prepared to comply with any stringent condition that may be imposed on him and he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the petitioner was in possession of 300 kgs. of PDS rice in 6 bags. He would also submit that the petitioner has three previous cases against him. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that without prejudice to his contention and defence, the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- to any welfare scheme run by the Government.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. Taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) to “the District Revenue Officer, Coimbatore District” without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. However, it is made clear that merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

9. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions of both sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

10. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) by way of Demand Draft/RTGS/NEFT to the "District Revenue Officer, Coimbatore District", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court, on such deposit and production of proof, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, No.IV, Coimbatore, on condition that the petitioner shall execute bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the
