The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 and 430 of I.P.C r/w Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.121 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, Ambur Taluk Police Station, Thirupathur District, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during their routine check up, the petitioner was found in illegal transportation of ¼ unit of river sand, using bullock cart from Palar River without any approval from the appropriate authority. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and a false case has been foisted against him. However, without prejudice to his rights and contentions, the petitioner is prepared to deposit a substantial amount towards any Welfare Scheme run by the Government as may be directed by this Court. Therefore, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner had illegally transported $\frac{1}{4}$ unit of river sand without any valid permit from the Government by using bullock cart. He further submitted that, no previous case is pending against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. In order to curb the illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioner offering to deposit a considerable amount to any Welfare Scheme run by the Government, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner may be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) to the credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to his rights and the contentions before the trial Court.
