The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 4(1) (aaa) of Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act, in Crime No.224 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during their routine check up they found that the petitioner was in possession of 110 litres of Pondy Arrack. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has been falsely implicated by the respondent police and a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. He would also submit that the petitioner is prepared to comply with any stringent condition that may be imposed on him and he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner was in possession of 110 litres of Pondy Arrack. He would further submit that there is one previous case pending against the petitioner. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that without prejudice to his contention and defence the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- to any welfare scheme run by the Government.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. Taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) to “the District Revenue Officer, Mayiladuthurai District” without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. However, it is made clear that merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.
