The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 and 430 IPC and Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.483 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.04.2023, while the respondent Police was on regular patrol duty, the petitioners were found illegally transporting 3 units of savudu sand in a lorry without any valid permit or license from the Government. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and a false case has been foisted against them. He further submitted that there is no previous case pending against them. However, without prejudice to his rights and contentions, the petitioners are prepared to deposit a substantial amount towards any Welfare Scheme run by the Government as may be directed by this Court. Therefore, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Crl.O.P.No.10316 of 2023

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners stating that the petitioners had illegally transported 3 units of savudu sand without any valid permit from the Government by using a vehicle.

5. In order to curb the illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioners offering to deposit a considerable amount to any Welfare Scheme run by the Government, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioners may be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each to the credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to their rights and the contentions before the trial Court.

6. Having regard to the nature of allegations made against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, each of the petitioners shall make a non-refundable deposit of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) by way
