CrI.O.P.No.11198 of 2023

K.KUMARESH BABU, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 and 430 of IPC, in Crime No.111 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during their routine check up, the petitioners were illegally transporting the sand from the patta land . Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and a false case has been foisted against them. However, without prejudice to his rights and contentions, the petitioners are prepared to deposit a substantial amount towards any Welfare Scheme run by the Government as may be directed by this Court. Therefore, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners 1 and 2 had illegally transported Gravel Sand from the Patta land. The learned counsel further submitted that the 1st petitioner is the owner of the lorry and 2nd petitioner is the driver of the lorry and 3rd petitioner is not an accused in this case. The learned counsel further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners 1 and 2. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. In order to curb the illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioners offering to deposit a considerable amount to any Welfare Scheme run by the Government, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioners 1 and 2 may be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees twenty Thousand only) each to the credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to his rights and the contentions before the trial Court.
