police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Gopi is that the victim has borrowed an amount of Rs.4,00,000/- from one Raja and his relatives and since he was unable to pay the amount, the accused had gone to the place of employment of the victim and abused him in filthy language and humiliated him and due to humiliation, the victim has committed suicide by consuming rat poison. Hence the present case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected with the offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the fact remains is that the Victim Thangaraj had borrowed money from several persons and unable to pay the money. Therefore, he had committed suicide, whereas, a false complaint has been given, as if, the petitioner has demanded money and humiliated him. He further submitted that there is absolutely no allegation of abetment on the part of the petitioner. He also submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 10.03.2023. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with his relatives had given loan to the victim and since the victim was unable to pay the money, the petitioner along with other accused had gone to the place of his employment, abused and harassed him and abetted him to commit suicide, thereby, the victim had committed suicide by consuming poison. He further submitted the investigation is still pending, hence, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 10.03.2023, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail
