Crl.O.P.No.10120 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 427 and 506(i) r/w. Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.150 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are co-parceners and there was a dispute in respect of possessing land and house and as a result of which, the petitioners said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have nothing to do with the said allegation and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that there is no injury sustained by the defacto-complainant and further submitted that there is no previous case pending against these petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Having regard to the facts of the case and the nature of the allegation made against the petitioners and also of the fact that no injury has been sustained by the defacto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before
