The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 352 and 506(i) of I.P.C. in Crime No.151 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during the marriage dinner event conducted by the de-facto complainant, there was a wordy quarrel arose between the petitioners and de-facto complainant, whereby the petitioners along with A-1 assaulted and threatened the de-facto complainant. Hence, a case has been registered against the petitioners and other accused.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that there is a case in counter and hence, he seeks for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there is a case in counter and no one was injured in the said incident. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made on both sides and also of the fact that there is a case in counter and no one was injured in the said incident, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Mannargudi, on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bonds for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees
