Crl.O.P.No.10000 of 2023

K.KUMARESH BABU, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 120(B), 420 of IPC altered into under Sections 120(B), 406, 420 of IPC and Section 21 of BUDS Act, 2019 and Section 5 of TNPID (in Financial Establishment) Act, 1997, in Crime No.3 of 2020, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused instigated the defacto complainant to purchase plots from them and thereby induced him to deposit money and later cheated him by not registering any plots in favour of the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against him for statistical purpose. He further submitted that the crime number is of the year 2020 and the main accused /A1 was arrested and released on bail. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with other accused cheated the defacto complainant by not registering any plots in favour of the defacto complainant. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Special Court for TNPID Act Cases, Coimbatore, on condition that the petitioner shall execute bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to
