Crl.O.P.No.10013 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 294(b), 341, 324 & 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.129 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners had threatened the defacto complainant namely, R.Rajasekar due to the family dispute. Further, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against them for statistical purpose. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the victim was injured and treated as out patient and later discharged from the Hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration, the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
