Crl.O.P.No.10092 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC, in Crime No.117 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Lakshmi is that the petitioners and her second son one Vallarasu are friends. Due to the unwanted behaviour of the petitioners, the said Vallarasu had not spoken to them. Due to which, the petitioners assaulted Vallarasu and took his cell phone. When the same was questioned by the de facto complainant, the petitioners abused her with filthy language and attacked her with stone. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against them for statistical purpose.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant and his son Vallarasu and caused injuries to them. He further submitted that the injured have been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration, the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that the injured have been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before
