Crl.O.P.No.10031 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(i) of I.P.C., in Crime No.211 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant settled the land and house in favour of her brother-in-law. It was alleged that on 09.04.2023, the petitioners came to the house of the de-facto complainant and abused her with filthy language, beat her with hands and legs and threatened to kill her and her brother-in-law. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the victim was injured and treated as out patient and later discharged from the Hospital. Further, there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Having regard to the facts of the case and the nature of the allegation made against the petitioners and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before
