Crl.O.P.No.10116 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 341, 324 and 506(ii) IPC, in Crime No.140 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Elavarasan is that the petitioner and the de facto complainant are tenants in the same premises. There was a dispute between them regarding maintenance of the common toilet, due to which the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him with rod. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against him for statistical purpose. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant with rod and caused injuries to him. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration, the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sankagiri, on condition that the petitioner shall
