A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324, 342, 506(ii) and 307 of IPC in Crime No.224 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with another accused have abused the defacto complainant's husband and assaulted him with iron rod, resulting in him sustaining grievous injuries. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and a false complaint has been given against him. He would further submit that the defacto complainant's husband used to tease the wife of the petitioner and created problem and when it was questioned by the petitioner, a false complaint has been given by the defacto complainant, as if, the petitioner had assaulted her husband with iron rod. He would further submit that the injured has also been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that there was a previous enmity between the petitioner and the defacto complainant's husband, due to which, the petitioner along with another accused had assaulted her husband with iron rod, resulting in him sustaining grievous injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is
