The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 509 of IPC & Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002 in Crime No.03 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a family dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. Due to which, there was a wordy quarrel between them and also abused her in filthy language. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against him. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner attacked the de facto complainant and abused her with filthy language and further submitted that no one injured in this case. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
