Crl.O.P.No.10276 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC, in Crime No.135 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is the father of the defacto complainant. Due to family dispute between them, the petitioner abused and attacked the defacto complainant's mother and sister with bamboo stick. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioner assaulted him with wooden log and caused injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against him for statistical purpose. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the defacto complainant is the son of the petitioner, due to family dispute, the petitioner attacked his wife, daughter and son and caused simple injuries to them. He further submitted that injured have been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Having regard to the facts of the case and the nature of the allegation made against the petitioner and also of the fact that the injured have been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
