The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 6(4) of the TN Schedule Commodities [RDCS] Order, 1982 read with Section (7)(1)(a)(ii) of the Essential Commodities Act, 1958 in Crime No.29 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 24.04.2023, while the respondent was on a regular patrol near Sakthi Vinayagar Temple, they had found a person in possession of 20 bags of PDS rice each contains 50 Kgs without obtaining any permission or license from the Tamil Nadu State Government. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. He would also submit that the petitioner is prepared to comply with any stringent condition that may be imposed on him and he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner was in the possession of 20 bags of PDS rice. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that without prejudice to his contention and defence the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- to any welfare scheme run by the Government.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. Taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) to “the District Revenue Officer, Vellore District” without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. However, it is made clear that merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

9. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions of both sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

10. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) by way of Demand Draft/RTGS/NEFT to the "District Revenue Officer, Vellore District", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court, on such deposit and production of proof, the petitioner is ordered
